ABOUT

I'm a TV and web TV host who started training as a professional speaker and singer from the age of 8. I've worked for more than 25 years professionally as an actor, singer and TV host and I love to sell!

I'm also a weight loss and wellness champion having lost more than 40 kilos in weight and transforming my health and my lifestyle, naturally.

I'm a keen shopper, voiceover artist and avid foodie, constantly dreaming up tasty, healthy and easy to make recipes which I share during my weekly live streams.
